

CRITICAL PEDAGOGY SUMMIT THANK YOUS

A special THANK YOU to Katya's partner Marat and my Greg, who transformed the Allen Research Commons – Red C – to a fabulous kiddo playground. It was the most beautiful and liberating scene to be able to do great critical pedagogical work, while having our children hear the songs that Jen sang for all of us and our ancestors. Thank you to Madeline Mundt and Elliot Stevens for all the institutional support to put on a blend of organized messiness and organic successful event. Ahh, and thank you to Jen Ten Bears, for walking with us, for sharing, for guiding and for envisioning and for healing.
