

Molly Blue

206-555-2345 | mblue@uw.edu
1851 NE Grant Ln, Seattle, WA 98105

Education

University of Washington Sep. 2013 – June 2015
Master of Library and Information Science Seattle, WA

Santa Clara University Aug. 2005 - May 2009
Bachelor of Arts in Psychology, minor business (cum laude) Santa Clara, CA

Profile

- Experienced professional in youth and non-profit program management with commitment to early childhood literacy, diverse youth materials, and digital inclusion
- Invested in developing sustainable community outreach, programs and library advocacy
- Collaborates well with teams and diverse populations as a reliable and resourceful problem solver

Relevant Experience

US Impact Survey May 2013 – Present
Research Assistant Seattle, WA

- Research and evaluate topics on digital inclusion in libraries, including youth programs and adult digital literacy, to create an evaluation matrix for a new digital collection development project
- Support operation of the helpdesk, responding to librarians' questions and troubleshooting for various needs at the organization
- Analyze four library collections using statistical analysis to construct and test a new program for Impact Survey's website
- Perform industry analysis by revising grant reports, indexing databases, testing surveys

King County Public Library June – Sep. 2015
Children's Librarian Intern Bellevue, WA

- Planned and executed weekly family story times under supervision of children's librarian
- Provided reader's advisory and reference for more than 600 children participating in the summer reading program
- Facilitated analysis of uncategorized board books and paperback books for branch collection
- Assisted in outreach at two free lunch sites in Bellevue School District, providing reader's advisory and read aloud for kids

Eckstein Middle School Feb. – May 2015
Middle School Librarian Intern Seattle, WA

- Provided reader's advisory by creating a digital display and book talks to five classes
- Promoted library services and resources to students and teachers, assisting with implementation of library iPads into classroom projects
- Managed the circulation desk and answered student questions on a diverse range of topics

Boy's and Girl's Club Aug 2009 – Apr.2013
K-5 Afterschool Program Manager Seattle, WA

- Recruited, trained, and supervised four after-school tutor volunteers to assist students with homework
- Managed yearly budget for all after-school activities by planning and facilitating activities to build social and academic skills to K-5 students

Additional Information

- Skills: Prezi, Social Media, Wordpress, MS SQL Server, XML, MS Office
- Memberships: American Library Association, Washington Library Association