

Tue. 9/19

5:30pm: SAA-UW and SLA-UW Meet & Greet*Location: Mamma Melina*

The UW Chapter of the Society of American Archivists, in conjunction with the university chapter of the Special Libraries Association, is hosting a meet-and-greet for all online and residential MLIS students. Library professionals and professors will also be in attendance. Refreshments provided. Meet in Red Square at 5:10pm to walk over.

Wed. 9/20

5:30pm: sARSL Meet, Greet, and Treat*Location: Sweet Alchemy*

The UW Chapter of the Association of Rural and Small Libraries believes in the value of rural and small libraries, and the librarians who serve them. sARSL's goal is to educate online and residential MLIS students about aspects of working in rural and small libraries, from the benefits they provide to the issues they face. Learn more and enjoy treats at the group's meet, greet, and treat.

Thur. 9/21

12:00pm: ArLiSNAP Art Gallery Tour*Location: Henry Art Gallery*

ArLiSNAP is hosting a guided tour of the Henry Art Gallery. Stop by and meet fellow students interested in arts-oriented librarianship, visual resources management, and new media. Reception with light food and non-alcoholic beverages to follow.

12:30pm: iWorld Social*Location: Café Allegro*

iWorld is a forum for student and faculty conversations about library and information topics from an international perspective, as well as cultural and diversity issues important to the US community of information professionals. Join the group to learn more about international opportunities for information professional. Coffee and pastries provided.

5:00pm: IUGA and Winfo Tech Trivia Night*Location: Mary Gates Hall, room 231*

Time to put your thinking caps on! The Informatics Undergraduate Association, along with Women in Informatics, will be hosting a tech trivia night for all Informatics students. The team-based trivia night will have the format of pub quizzes/bar trivia, and topics will range from major tech companies to our beloved iSchool. Participating as an iSquad is encouraged but not mandatory. This is a great chance to meet new people – and then crush them with your superior knowledge.

Fri. 9/22

12:30pm: iYouth Picnic*Location: North entrance of Mary Gates Hall ("Blocked Out" monument)*

Join iYouth, the youth services professional development organization, for a welcome picnic in front of Mary Gates Hall. Lunch provided.

5:00pm: ALISS Speed Friending*Location: Big Time Brewery*

The Association of Library and Information Science Students invites you to an evening of speed-friending. Hang out, enjoy refreshments, and get to know your fellow iSchool students. All the fun of speed dating, none of the awkward rejections. New and returning students welcome.

Mon. 9/25

2:00pm: iEquality and iQueeries Garden Party*Location: Grieg Garden*

iEquality and iQueeries invite you to their welcome week garden party. Meet the groups' officers and chat with your fellow cohort over shared food and fun, while learning more about the organizations, their missions, and how you can get involved.

5:00pm: IUGA Bonfire*Location: Golden Gardens Park*

IUGA will be hosting a bonfire for all Informatics students at Golden Gardens. Marshmallows, hot dogs, and beach games all included. Don't miss out – this event is going to be FIRE!

Tues. 9/26

4:00pm: DSA Happy Hour*Location: District Lounge*

Join the Doctoral Student Association for their first happy hour of the year. All PhD students, faculty, and staff are welcome. Appetizers provided.

Sat. 10/7

5:00pm: AIMS Picnic*Location: Ravenna Park*

The Association of Information Management Students is hosting a chance for incoming and current students to mingle at their (belated) welcome week picnic. AIMS is committed to better the MSIM experience for all students, and is excited to introduce new students to their new peers and committee members. Food, games, and general merriment provided.