

A PLACE AT THE TABLE

IMAGES OF GREEK-AMERICAN RESTAURANTS
AND BUSINESSES IN WASHINGTON STATE
(1900-1970)

ABOUT THE MUSEUM

Online museum, archive in Capitol Hill.
Oral history collection with over 600 additional artifacts in archive. Created by Greek community for Greek community.

NEED

Promotion of archive and museum to increase community representation and recognition, as well as increase use and longevity of museum.

IMPLEMENTATION

- Concept planning and design
- Photo curation
- Archival and historical research
- Draft of text
- Book cover and manuscript layout
- Review and editing from sponsor and local editors
- Finalized book draft and layout for publication

IMPACT

- Promotes the Greek-American Historical Museum of Washington State within the Greek community and outside of the community.
- Preserves, shares, and builds upon local history, culture, and traditions of the Greek-American community.
- Serves as a representative publication for distribution within community and for use by researchers, libraries, and other archives or museums.

ERIKA WIGREN | MLIS 2019

