

Background:

- US Air Force Pilot shot down over North Vietnam in 1968
- Was beloved Central Washington State College alumni
- Initially MIA later determined KIA
- Family seeks to locate and return his remains
- CWU Air Force ROTC Scholarship in his name
- Cadets awarded scholarship make report about his story

Challenge:

- Boxes of original materials were being used by Cadets for research
- Materials were being damaged by use
 - Some material was as old as 1940's
 - Materials include information about: San's life, Air Force career, and efforts to find his remains

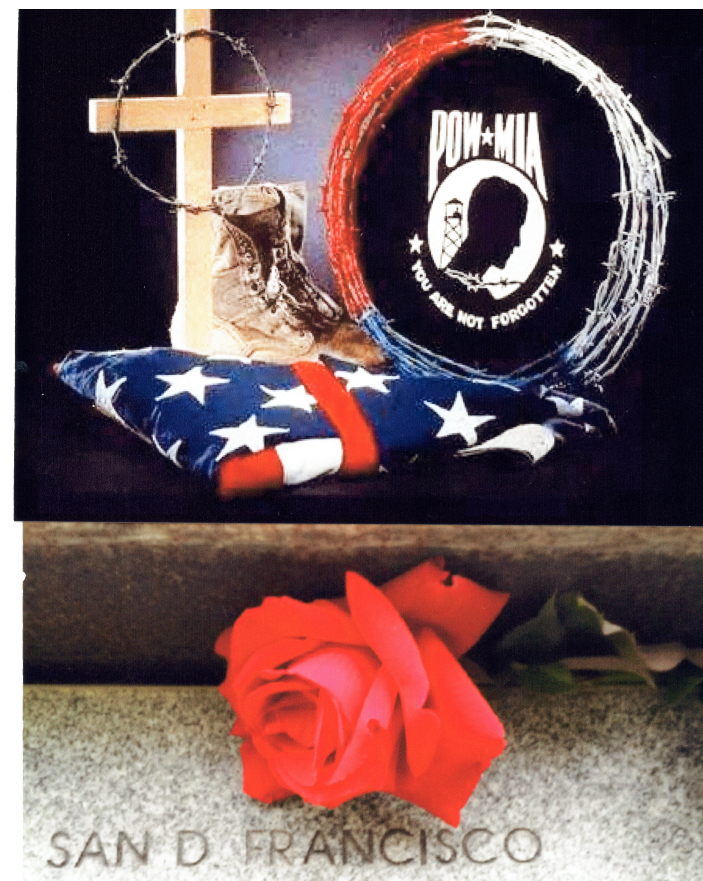

Baby cup given to San from City of San Francisco

Solution and Impact:

- Original materials scanned and rehoused in archival quality boxes, folders, and photo sleeves.
- Cadet volunteers scanned materials
- Scans uploaded to open access repository
- Site will contain over 400 file
- Video, photos, and documents

Local veterans groups continue to raise awareness of this case and established a scholarship in San's name

Photos from the forensic archaeology dig from the on-going search for San's remains

