Primary Challenges

- Time - The biggest challenge was coordinating schedules and making sure we had enough time to gather the needed materials
- Budget - Not having a budget required us to utilize a mixture of freely available resources
- Technology - We navigated troublesome scanners, glitchy apps, and problematic files

Our Approach

- Quality over Quantity - Our exhibit showcases the variety of work produced by the Seattle Opera over the years
- User Centered Design - Layout and navigation were designed with ease of access in mind
- Communication - Consistent and clear communication helped us navigate each new challenge
