

SMITH TOWER

1914 CENTENNIAL 2014

The first documentary script ever to highlight the construction and history of Smith Tower and Seattle's emergence as a major North American city

We Are:

- Increasing public visibility for UW Special Collections
- Creating greater access to UW Special Collections historical materials
- Developing working relationships with KCTS 9 and the greater Seattle history community

Sarah Freeman, sarahf27@uw.edu
Renato Rodriguez, renator@uw.edu

Image courtesy UW Special Collections, SEA1790

Sarah Freeman
Renato Rodriguez

Master's Degree in
Library and Information Science
Capstone - June 2013

Project Description

Combining in-depth expert interviews with extensive historical, archival, and architectural research, we have created a compelling 40-minute script

Resources & Special Thanks:

- Nicolette Bromberg, UW Special Collections
- John Booth, KCTS 9
- Jeffrey Ochsner, UW Dept. of Architecture
- Paula Becker, historylink.org
- Lorraine McConaghy, MOHAI
- Scott Cline, Seattle Municipal Archives
- Cate Chase, Goodman Real Estate
- Stephen Willis, Smith Tower
- Seattle Room, Seattle Public Library
- Syracuse University Special Collections