Indigenous Peoples of California: A Digital Guide to Related Resources at The Bancroft Library

- A cohesive, online guide to primary sources and select secondary sources held at The Bancroft Library,

> University of California, Berkeley, relating to Indigenous tribes of present-day California

information about specific tribes of California and assist in language and cultural preservation

- Provide increased access to

DESCRIPTION

OUTCOMES

- One place to find relevant resources
  - User-friendly for all users
    - Easier access to resources related to specific traditional languages
      - Supportive of language preservation and revitalization programs held on the UC Berkeley campus
      - Product to share with Native communities and persons to bring attention to Barretts resources of

- Working with community members, subject specialists, and information professionals, we organized resources first by language family and then by type of content

- Extracted and organized relevant metadata from library catalog and collection finding aids

> - Created a sortable user interface on the LibGuide platform

METHODOLOGY

an ~ Esselen ~ Karuk ~ Maiduan

NEXT STEPS

Providu A

PACHECO

EWHA

- Share webpage with tribal rancherias, reservations, and communities, as well as organizations focused on Indigenous culture and education

- Incorporate pictorial resources, including photographs and illustrations from The Bancroft Library's collection
- Incorporate additional relevant secondary resources

POMO LINGUISTIC STOCK

OF OTHER LINGUISTIC STOCKS SHOWING DIALECTIC SUBDIVISIONS

AND VILLAGE SITES

~ Pomoan ~ Salinan ~ Shastan ~ Takic (Uto-Aztecan)

interest

~~~

Images used: Map G 04361 E1 1908 M3 Case C Bancroft, Map of the territory of the Pomo linguistic stock..., The Bancroft Library, UC Berkeley; BANC PIC 1978.008 T/19a/P2 no.1—PIC, Mary Major, fullblood Wintoon. 86 Years old. State Fair, Sacramento, Calif. 1934, The Bancroft Library, UC Berkeley.

Q) HALLA