

Connect Me

The Problem

People who play video games like to play with other people, but, in most cases, they lack friends that share the same gaming interests and experience level.

“We strive to bridge the gap between gamers who were previously strangers and allow them to play together!”

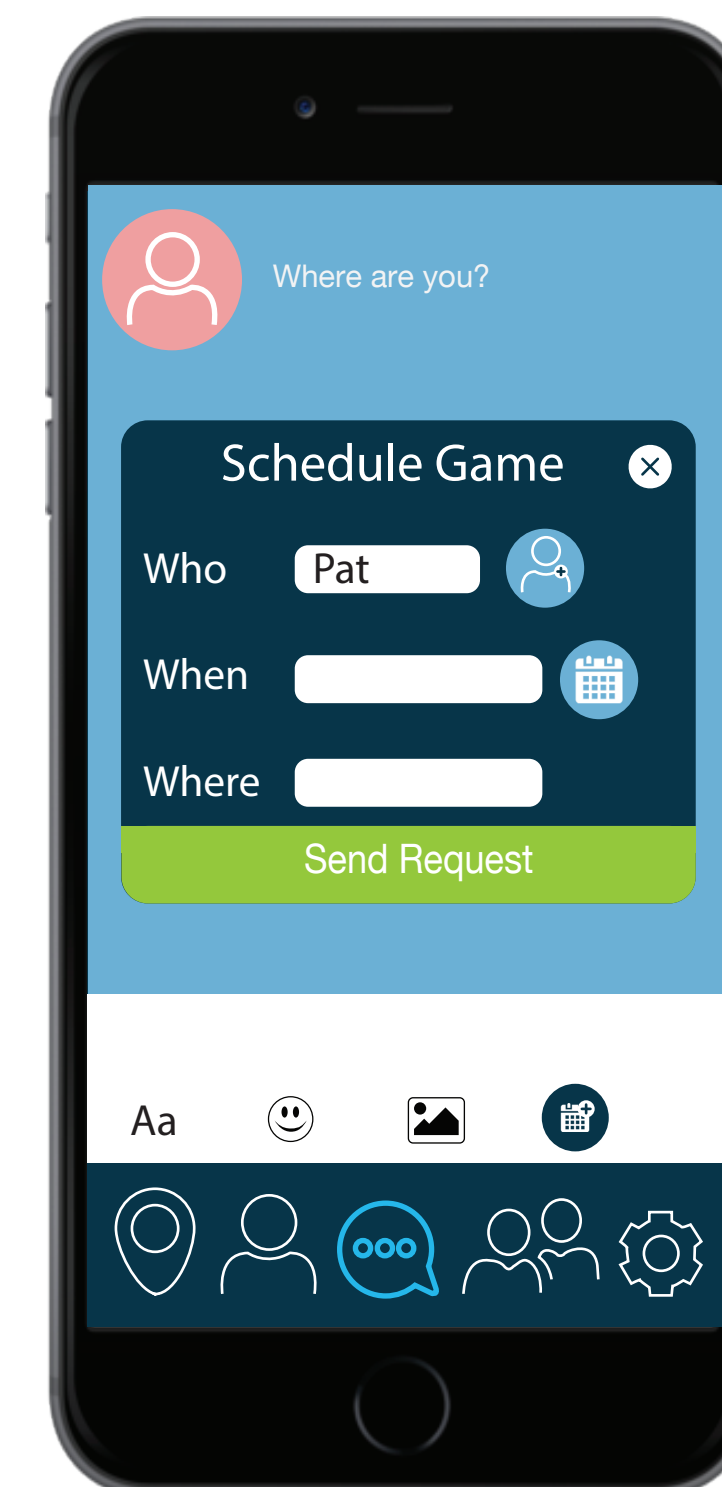

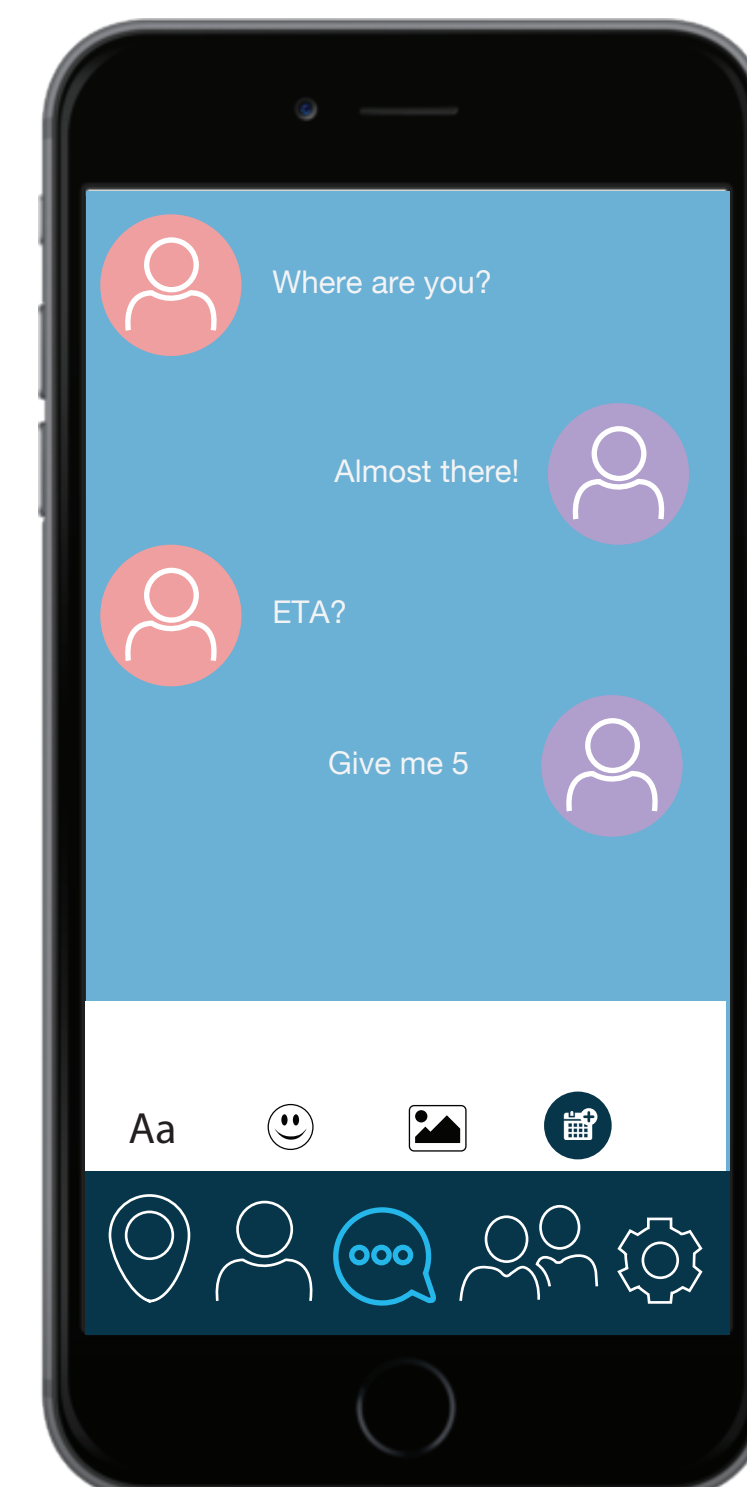

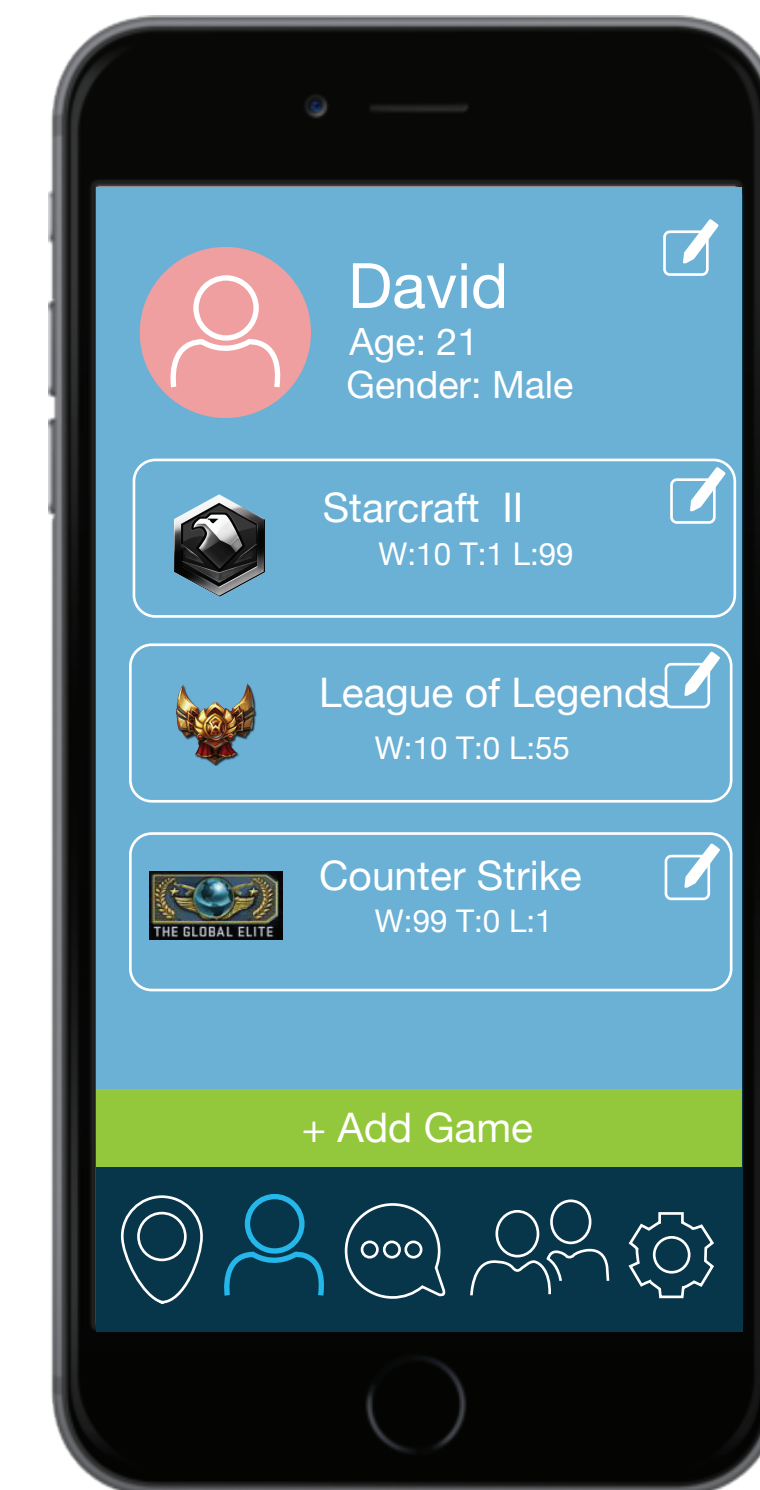

The Solution

A webapp that allows gamers to connect with other gamers nearby by utilizing personalized gaming profiles and allowing users to create, update and customize their own gaming profiles.

Key Features

Keep your gaming profile up to date by customizing your own profile

Chat and schedule gaming sessions with your new friends

View the people around you as a list or on a radar
